I just noticed the SunPak version of the Gorillapod - by all accounts, it is identical to the one by Joby. Wouldn't this be a licensure issue? Does Joby manufacture this for SunPak?

Thanks,
Joyce

Hello,

The only difference between the two versions is the unpackaged comes in bubble wrap. They are both fully exchangeable and refundable. I believe that Gorillapodlove is still in use. If you have issues using it please reply to this email with your order number once you place your order and we will manually apply the coupon.

Thank you and have a wonderful day,

Subject: question regarding packaging

What is the difference between the packaged and unpackaged versions?

Do they both come with a warranty and are they both returnable if faulty?

Also, when does the code GorillaLOVE expire? I plan on using it right after I hear back from you.

Thanks,
Joyce
